

Reverend Marjorie McDaniel, M.Th., C.C.
10453 Mill Road
Cincinnati, Ohio 45240
614-517-2210

Reverend Marjorie Wallace McDaniel is a native of Laurel, Mississippi. Her family relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio when she was a teenager and she lived there until August 1999 when she moved to Columbus, Ohio to accept a position of Chaplain at Ohio State University Medical Center- Hospitals East.

Reverend McDaniel attended Xavier University in Cincinnati majoring in Education and Trinity Lutheran Seminary in Columbus, Ohio, majoring in Theology. She is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati earning a degree in Liberal Arts and a Certificate in Women Studies, and was given the Distinguished Alumni Award 2018. She earned a Bachelor degree in Christian Education (Magna Cum Laude) and a Masters in Theology (Summa Cum Laude) from International Apostolic College of Grace and Truth.

She served as Chaplain in the department of Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education and manager of volunteer chaplains at The Ohio State University Hospitals East, for 15 years, having the distinction of being the first African American female chaplain in the history of OSU Medical Center. Chaplain McDaniel developed a program to train volunteer Chaplains and provided worship services and Mass in the hospital sanctuary for patients, their families and staff.

Reverend McDaniel, who has been preaching for many years, is a motivational speaker for women groups, an Evangelist and a Rostered Leader in The Evangelical Lutheran Churches in America, ordained June 2, 2013.

After retirement from OSU in 2014, she has served at
Redeemer Lutheran church, Dayton, Ohio (stated supply 2009-2012)
St. Luke Lutheran church, Zanesville, Ohio (full time Pastor 2015-2019)
St. John Lutheran church, Sunman, Indiana (interim 2019-2022)
St. Paul Lutheran Church, Batesville, Indiana (interim 2022-2023)

Rev. McDaniel is skilled at preaching, teaching and organization.

Reverend McDaniel has three children, 10 grandchildren, and six great grandchildren. In her spare time, she loves to travel and to spend time with her family and friends.

Julie →